

PRESS RELEASE

The first meeting of the National Interagency Committee to Combat Gender-Based Violence in Armenia was held in the RoA MLSA

Yerevan, 12 May 2010 – Today, the first meeting of the National Interagency Committee to Combat Gender-Based Violence in Armenia was held in the premises of the RoA Ministry of Labor and Social Affairs (MLSA).

The Committee was established as per Decree (N 213-A, March 30, 2010) of the RoA Prime Minister Tigran Sargsyan. The creation of the National Interagency Committee to Combat Gender-Based Violence (GBV) became an unprecedented act of political will at the highest policy-making levels that demonstrated the readiness of the RoA Government to take concrete steps towards eradication of GBV in the Republic of Armenia.

The decision concerning the establishment of the National Interagency Committee to Combat GBV was a follow up to the official request from UNFPA Armenia addressed to the RoA Minister of Labor and Social Affairs, which stated the importance of coordination of the efforts undertaken by different structures in the field, and ongoing support to the RoA Government for implementation of the national policies and programmes targeting GBV reduction and prevention, as well as called upon the Government of Armenia to create a special coordination and monitoring body on the highest official level to ensure the effectiveness of the programmes implemented in the field.

The meeting was chaired by Mr. Filaret Berikyan, Deputy Minister of Labor and Social Affairs. The following speakers also were included in the agenda:

- Ms. Lala Ghazaryan, Head of the Family, Women and Children Department of the RoA MLSA;
- Ms. Armenuhi Tanashyan, Head of Division of Women Issues of the Family, Women and Children Department of the RoA MLSA;
- Ms. Jina Sargizova, UNFPA “Combating Gender-Based Violence in the South Caucasus” Project Coordinator.
